

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY – MEMORIAL GREEN

10.53 Welcome and Announcement of the Roll Call - Reverend John Barr

We read out these names in memory of those from this parish who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardship, faced danger and finally passed out of mortal sight by the paths of duty and self sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom.

10.56 Prayer leading into Act of Remembrance - Reverend John Barr

Creator God, who brings one day to a close and a new day to dawn,

We remember those who gave their today that we might have a tomorrow.

Eternal God, we honour you for the wondrous gift of life, for the awesome gift of choice, and for the immense gift of possibility, for good or ill, which you have given your human family.

We give thanks for those who put duty before life.

We give thanks for the loyalty and fortitude of those who kept the home fires burning during dark times.

Today, in your presence, we remember; the waste of life, and wit and learning,

The love that was never shared, the torture of body and mind,

Those who died without understanding or valour, those who have no grave to mark their sacrifice.

We mourn for the goodness and wisdom that died with them; for the skill and wit that perished, the learning, the laughter and the leadership that were lost. The world has become a poorer place and our hearts become cold as we think of the splendour that might have been.

As we remember these men and women, and the suffering that war and discord bring, Psalm 46 reminds us that:-

'God is our hope and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore, will we not fear, though the earth be moved and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea. He makes wars to cease, he breaks the bow and the spear in two and he burns the chariots in the fire'. 'Be still and know that I am God'.

10.58 Act of Remembrance - the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Leicestershire, Mehmooda Duke MBE DL

Let us remember before God and commend to his safe keeping those who have died for their country in war; those whom we knew and whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of others.

Exhortation - Councillor Val White

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All respond:           “WE WILL REMEMBER THEM “

11.07 The Closing Prayer and Blessing - Reverend John Barr

Ever loving God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples, and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Go forth into the world in peace; be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good; render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;

help the afflicted; honour everyone; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing .....

National Anthem – first verse only

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.
